In a desire to be benevolent and flexible towards the winners, DriveX may offer the winner of a vehicle, subject to their acceptance, a cash buyback solution in lieu of the physical handover of the vehicle.

If the winner chooses this option, DriveX undertakes to pay him/her, by bank transfer, the lump sum of €80,000 within a maximum period of seven (7) calendar days following the complete validation of his/her administrative file, identity and bank details.

The payment of this sum entails the final and irrevocable renunciation of the winner of the vehicle concerned.

Unavailability of a vehicle

If, for a reason beyond the control of DriveX (in particular unavailability, destruction, theft, administrative impossibility, regulatory constraint or any other case of force majeure), the advertised vehicle cannot be returned to the winner, the winner may choose between the following options:

- receive the lump sum of EUR 80,000 in accordance with the cash repurchase option provided for in these Rules; or

- wait for the provision of an identical vehicle or, failing that, an equivalent vehicle, which DriveX undertakes to seek out and offer as soon as possible.

The winner's choice will be in writing and will be final after confirmation by both parties.
